

24.11.2020 - 09:30 to 11:00

When talking about circular economy, how can you ensure safety of the whole water cycle? The UBC TALKS webinar in November will open up the theme "Wastewater safety in circular economy". How to better handle hazardous substances in the wastewater treatment process and what are the best ways to raise awareness of citizens regarding their role in this cycle? Save the date to join the discussion!

Tuesday, 24 November at 09.30.11.00 CET

The detailed programme is coming soon!
