

Niels Højberg

Niels Højberg is chief executive in the City of Aarhus, and has been so since 2008. Prior to that he was the Managing Director of Aarhus University. In his career he has had positions as the top official in regions and municipalities and had his first job in the Ministry of Finance in Copenhagen. He holds a Master's Degree in Political Science and BA in Philosophy from Aarhus University and an M.Phil. from Glasgow University. From 2013-2015 he was the Chairman of the Danish Association of Local Government Executives. Niels Højberg has been the co-author of a number of publications mainly on leadership in the public sector and has twice been awarded "Municipal Decision Maker of the Year" in Denmark.

Ulf Kämpfer

Dr Ulf Kämpfer (SPD) has been Lord Mayor of the Land Capital Kiel since 24 April 2014. The lawyer and Secretary of State of the Schleswig-Holstein Ministry of the Environment won 63.12 per cent of the votes as the joint candidate for SPD, the Greens (Grünen) and SSW in the fifth direct elections for Kiel's Lord Mayor on 23 March 2014.

Lord Mayor Kämpfer is also responsible for the industry sector at Kiel Town Hall. His department includes the Press and Public Relations Office, the Legal Office, the Audit Office, the Department of Economic Affairs, the Office for Equality and Land Capital Kiel's investment management company Eigenbetrieb Beteiligungen.

MANTAS JURGUTIS

Member of Kaunas City Council, Chairperson of Management and Community Development Committee

Birthdate 1987-08-17

Graduated from Šančiai Secondary School.

2007 – 2009 and 2009 – 2013 member of the Board and Chairperson of Kaunas Youth Organizations' Union „Round Table“

2009 – 2014 member and Vice-chairperson of Youth Affairs' Council of Kaunas City Municipality

2009 – 2012 member of the Board of Lithuanian Youth Organizations' Council

2015 – up to date member of Kaunas City Council, Chairperson of Management of Community Development Committee

2019 – up to date Kaunas City Deputy Mayor

While being a member of Kaunas City Council, he is also a Deputy Director of Centre of Enterprise Practices of Vytautas Magnus University.

He is very active in various youth projects and was also awarded by NGOs as the best leader of youth organizations in Lithuania in 2011. In 2013 he was granted the award of the name of P. Vileišis by Lithuanian Confederation of Industrialists for his input in developing and strengthening youth organizations, entrepreneurial initiatives for youngsters.

He has a background in Marketing Management.