The program of the study visit will take place on December 3rd and 4th, 2019 at the St. Mary's Folk High School (Sankta Maria Folkhögskola, address Adlerfelts väg 4, Malmö) in the Rosengård district. The Skåne Association of Local Authorities will be responsible for the programme. Focus for the presentations and discussions will be on newly arrived immigrants and others who need help with their basic skills in finding their fastest and best path to the labour market and participation in society. The themes for the presentations will cover:

- The human aspects of learning
- Best practices - practical methods in the classroom
- Coaching and cooperation - the classroom in a context
- Special skills/needs, broadening the recruitment and the employer perspective

The following local actors will be involved in the program:

Community Centre Apelgården (Allaktivitetshuset Apelgården) in the Rosengård district aims to improve the quality of life and participation opportunities of both individuals and families.

Saint Mary's Folk High School (Sankta Maria Folkhögskola) is an independent adult education college providing services for e.g. immigrants with a broken educational background.

Merit Education (Merit utbildning) is a company in Southern Sweden providing education, training and coaching for adults.

The NAD Project is a regional project that provides health and language services as well as contact and network opportunities for newly arrived immigrants in Skåne. NAD comes from the Swedish Nätverk-Aktivitet-Delaktighet, Network-Activity-Participation.
