

KAUNAS CITY

TRAVEL RECOMMENDATIONS

Strategically located at the heart of the country, Kaunas – Lithuania’s second-largest city – is conveniently reached by air, train, or road.

By plane:

Direct flights with Ryanair, Wizz Air, LOT and others operate to Vilnius or Kaunas from many European airports. Check schedules and fares at Vilnius Airport \(vno.lt\) and Kaunas Airport \(kun.lt\), or directly on your chosen airline’s website.

• Vilnius Airport:

For transfers, you can use taxis, the Bolt app, or the CityBee car-sharing service. Buses run from Vilnius Airport and the bus station to Kaunas throughout the day. Intercity bus tickets and prices: autobusubilietai.lt/en

You can also travel from Vilnius to Kaunas by train. Timetables and tickets: LTG Link

• Kaunas Airport:

Taxis, Bolt and CityBee are readily available. A trip to the city centre typically costs around 20 EUR.

City Bus No. 29 connects the airport with the city centre (approx. 45 minutes). Timetable: Bus 29 timetable

Tickets are available via the “Žiogas” app (0.70 €) or from the driver (1.50 €, cash only). You can also pay contactlessly by tapping your card or smart device on board.

By bus:

Local and international transfers are provided by Kautra, Eurolines, Ecolines, FlixBus, Lux Express, Infobus and TOKS. Timetables: autobusubilietai.lt/en

By train:

Kaunas is easily reached by train from Lithuanian and selected international cities (including the new Kaunas–Białystok route with a limited schedule). The railway station is conveniently located about 15 minutes on foot from the city centre.

WEATHER RECOMMENDATIONS

In April, average temperatures in Kaunas range from about 5°C to 14°C. Weather can be changeable, with occasional rain and wind. While most of the programme is indoors, we recommend packing a light jacket and an umbrella. Wearing layers helps you adjust to varying temperatures throughout the day.
